TIPS FOR A SUCCESSFUL FIRST YEAR AT THE EBA PROGRAM

- Attend to class on time!

While some classes may not have strict attendance requirements, it is important to attend all of your classes to get the most of your university education. Absenteeism will hurt your grades and learning process dramatically while in the EBA program. Studies show that the more a student misses class, the more likely that he or she will not finish university.

- Keep your syllabus handy!

A syllabus, given by your instructor at the beginning of a course, includes instructor contact information, required course texts, description of course objectives, assignment deadlines, academic regulations, and details about how the final grade will be computed.

- Come prepared for class!

In addition to having along the essentials (a notebook, pen/pencil and your textbook), being prepared for class means that you have read the assigned materials (or at least skimmed them) carefully and have completed your homework. Be prepared for an engaging classroom discussion about the assigned readings and homework.

- Turn in your assignments on time!

- Take notes during class!

Pay attention to what the instructor is saying. They can tell, even in lecture classes, who is not paying attention and who is doing other course work.

- Learn to think independently and critically!

Have an open mind for new ideas and challenges.

- Ask questions if you are confused or having problems!

- Review material often!

Last minute studying is stressful, inefficient and reduces chances for good grades. Make smart use of daylight hours, time before and after class and down periods by reviewing your homework, class notes, or projects.

- Contact your academic advisor each semester!

Your advisor can help you manage your courses to complete your degree on time. You should feel that your academic advisor knows you as a person by the end of your first semester at the university.

- Manage your time wisely!

First-year students tell us that one of their greatest challenges is learning how to manage their time well.

- Honor the academic integrity of this community!

As a member of the EBA as well as a Faculty of Economics student, you are expected to be a model of integrity.

- Learn how to manage your stress and keep fit!

Stay active and relieve some stress by exercising.

EBA STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Onsite Classroom Participation

This code of conduct serves as a guideline for learning for onsite learning here at EBA. To ensure the best quality learning for all classes, it is important that all students read, understand, and follow the guidelines set below.

- At the beginning of each lesson the instructor will check that each student is present. If you are not there, you will be marked absent. A minimum of 80% class attendance is required to sit for exam. (Cannot be absent for more than 3 times per semester in a course).

2. Attendance is important

- Regular attendance is crucial for academic success, you need to be active on class and engage at the minimum of 80% class attendance or else you will be marked as absent.
- In case of emergency or pre-existing event that is unavoidable, you need to always inform your instructor promptly.

3. Software and Applications

- MyCourseVille will be used as the main learning management system (LMS), and will contain all important course information such as the course outline, teaching materials and tools of interaction.

4. Classroom Etiquette

- Always comply with the rules set by your instructor..
- Communicate appropriately. All communications – verbal/by text message - must show respect for classmates and instructors. Avoid impolite or inappropriate messages.
- Dress appropriately.

5. Intellectual Property

- It is prohibited to share documents and/or communication that are exclusive to the course with outsiders or third parties.

1. Ethical use of Ai and Technology

- It is essential to engage with these tools ethically and responsibly. The use of AI must be used in alignment with ethical considerations. Do not attempt to use AI to generate fraudulent or deceptive content.

2. Academic Integrity and Original Work

- Maintaining academic integrity is paramount. All work submitted must be your original creation, properly cited when necessary. Plagiarism, cheating, or submitting someone else's work as your own is strictly prohibited and undermines the principles of learning and personal growth.
